Introduction

A girl named August Bishop who is best friends with the guy named Ethan Knight he's a popular guy he's handsome and he's pretty good magician. So that's pretty cool and August is um August is an aspiring actress Shirley wants to be famous, but she gets older so they've been best friends ever since. Ethan was seven years old and they've been inseparable and they're like everybody pretty much sees them as a couple because they act like a couple, but they're not anything official and they obviously have feelings for each other.

But they don't really know it and August begins to have these second thoughts and begins to wonder if she and Ethan could be more than friends and that happens like after a certain like. Event crazy event happens yeah that's when she starts like seeing him in a different way and she starts like realizing that she has all these feelings for him so yeah that's what the whole book. Is about but I'm gonna be honest this book wasn't the greatest and I was rat
